

COMPILED BY HELEN HAYES

The Luxury of Home

If you are looking to combine the luxury of a five-star hotel with all the comforts of home, try Luxico, Australia's leading 'Home Hotel'. With a choice of beautiful houses and apartments across Australia and a concierge team available 24/7, Luxico offer a unique holiday stay for everyone from multi-generation families to celebrity VIP guests. The in-home Luxico iPads connect you to housekeeping, room service, tours, itineraries and more. From a Woollahra terrace house in Sydney to Blairgowrie Retreat on the Mornington Peninsula, each home has to meet Luxico's high standards, in both charm and quality. With approximately 200 properties in Sydney, Melbourne, Mornington Peninsula and Palm Beach, Luxico has seen massive growth and is expanding in 2017 with luxury homes soon to be available in Byron Bay, on the Sunshine Coast and in Port Douglas. luxico.com.au

Ready to Rumba in Caloundra

For a wonderful beachfront vacation in Caloundra, Rumba Resort is absolutely perfect. This modern Resort, facing Bulcock Beach, has one- and two-bedroom Spa Suites as well as two- and three-bedroom Ocean Apartments. All are extremely well fitted out with full kitchens, laundries, spacious lounge areas, roomy bedrooms with ensuites and private balconies. There are two pools – one with a window in the bottom so you can see through to the Hog's Breath Restaurant down below – as well as a large Jacuzzi, perfect for sitting in at the end of a day exploring the Sunshine Coast. There are a host of restaurants within five minutes' walk, gorgeous beachfront strolls to be had on the coastal paths and boardwalks, and the many activities that are available on the Sunshine Coast can be booked through the Resort's tour desk. rumbaresort.com.au